STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING
CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION;
ORDER THEREON

DISCOVERY MATTER

District Judge: Hon. Fernando L.
Aenlle-Rocha
Magistrate Judge: Hon. Steven Kim
Courtroom: 6B
Complaint Filed: April 25, 2023

1 WHEREAS, Plaintiff Genaro Campos (“Plaintiff”) and Defendants RL On-2 Time Delivery Services, Inc., and FedEx Ground Package System, Inc.
3 (collectively, “Defendants,” and with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) have determined that 4 certain information to be produced in this Action may contain Confidential 5 Information (as defined below), the unauthorized disclosure of which could be 6 detrimental to the legitimate commercial or privacy interests of the Parties that 7 produced or designated this information as confidential or would contravene 8 applicable law;

9 WHEREAS, all of the Parties in the Action wish to maintain and protect 10 confidentiality of the Confidential Information and materials and restrict access to 11 and disclosure of such information and materials;

12 THE PARTIES THEREFORE HEREBY STIPULATE, by and through their 13 respective counsel of record, to entry of the following protective order as an order 14 of the above-captioned Court (“Stipulated Protective Order”) and propose to the 15 Court as follows:

16 1. A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

17 Disclosure and discovery activity in this Action are likely to involve 18 production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special 19 protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 20 prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the Parties hereby 21 stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective 22 Order. The Parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections 23 on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from 24 public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are 25 entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The Parties 26 further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated 27 Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal;

Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

This action is likely to involve confidential business, financial, proprietary and personal information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of, among other things, confidential business or financial information, information regarding confidential business practices, methods, policies, and procedures, or other confidential commercial information (including information implicating privacy rights of third parties), personal information, including personal financial information about third parties, and information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 “Action” means the action titled Genaro Campos v. RL On-Time

1 Delivery Service, Inc. et al., Case No. 2:23-cv-04082-FLA-SK.

2 2.2 “Challenging Party” means a Party or Non-Party that challenges the 3 designation of information or items under this Order.

4 2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items means information 5 (regardless of how it is generated, stored, or maintained) or tangible things that 6 qualify for protection under applicable law and the terms of this Stipulation and 7 Protective Order.

8 2.4 “Counsel” (without qualifier) means Outside Counsel of Record and 9 House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

10 2.5 “Designating Party” means a Party or Non-Party that designates 11 information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 12 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

13 2.6 “Disclosure or Discovery Material” means all items or information, 14 regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained 15 (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are 16 produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

17 2.7 “Expert” means a person with specialized knowledge or experience in 18 a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to 19 serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

20 2.8 “House Counsel” means attorneys who are employees of a Party to this 21 Action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other 22 outside counsel.

23 2.9 “Non-Party” means any natural person, partnership, corporation, 24 association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this Action.

25 2.10 “Outside Counsel of Record” means attorneys who are not employees
26 of a Party to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a Party to this Action 27 and have appeared in this Action on behalf of that Party or are affiliated with a law 28

1 firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

2 2.11 “Party” means any party to this Action, including all of its officers, 3 directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record 4 (and their support staffs).

5 2.12 “Producing Party” means a Party or Non-Party that produces 6 Disclosure or Discovery Material in this Action.

7 2.13 “Professional Vendors” means persons or entities that provide 8 litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing 9 exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form 10 or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

11 2.14 “Protected Material” means any Disclosure or Discovery Material that 12 is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

13 2.15 “Receiving Party” means a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery 14 Material from a Producing Party.

15 3. SCOPE

16 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 17 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or 18 extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or 19 compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 20 presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

21 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the 22 following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time 23 of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its 24 disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation 25 of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial or 26 otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 27 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source

1 who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to 2 the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a 3 separate agreement or order. This Order does not govern the use of Protected 4 Material at trial.

5 4. DURATION

6 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 7 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees 8 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be 9 deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, 10 with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and 11 exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, 12 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 13 pursuant to applicable law.

14 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

16 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under 17 this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that 18 qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for 19 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 20 communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, 21 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 22 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

23 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 24 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper 25 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or 26 to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the 27 Designating Party to sanctions.

1 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it 2 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 3 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

4 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 5 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise 6 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 7 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 8 produced.

9 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

10 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 11 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 12 proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" to 13 each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the 14 material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 15 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 16 margins).

17 "CONFIDENTIAL" designations shall be made upon a good faith 18 determination that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by 19 statute or that should be protected from disclosure, such as confidential personal 20 information, medical or psychiatric information, personnel records, trade secrets, 21 proprietary information, or other sensitive or confidential business, technical, sales 22 marketing, financial, commercial, or competitively sensitive information that is not 23 publicly available.

24 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available 25 for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party 26 has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the 27 inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for 28

1 inspection shall be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has 2 identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must 3 determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this 4 Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must 5 affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page that contains Protected Material.
6 If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the 7 Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 8 appropriate markings in the margins).

9 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, 10 that the Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, 11 hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony.

12 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 13 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 14 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the 15 legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item 16 warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 17 protected portion(s).

18 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 19 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive 20 the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such 21 material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make 22 reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the 23 provisions of this Order.

24 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

25 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 26 designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a 27 Designating Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, 28

1 substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or 2 delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality 3 designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original 4 designation is disclosed.

5 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 6 resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging 7 and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a 8 challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to 9 confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the 10 Protective Order. The Parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith 11 and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice-to-voice dialogue; other 12 forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of 13 notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that 14 the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party 15 an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, 16 and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen 17 designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge 18 process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes 19 that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process 20 in a timely manner.

21 6.3 Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a 22 confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the 23 Designating Party may file and serve a motion that identifies the challenged 24 material and sets forth in detail the basis for the challenge. Each such motion must 25 be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that the movant has 26 complied with the meet and confer requirements set forth in the preceding 27 paragraph.

1 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 2 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose 3 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 4 expose the Party challenging the designation to sanctions. Until the court rules on 5 the challenge, all parties shall afford the material in question the level of protection 6 originally designated.

7 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 9 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 10 case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such 11 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 12 conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a 13 Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 14 DISPOSITION).

15 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 16 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 17 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 18 “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

19 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as well 20 as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary 21 to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the 22 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit 23 A;

24 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 25 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and 26 who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); 27
28

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

(h) Any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as “CONFIDENTIAL” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

1 (b) promptly notify in writing the Party who caused the subpoena or order 2 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the 3 subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include 4 a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 5 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 6 by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

7 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 8 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 9 Action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the 10 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s 11 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 12 protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions 13 should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action 14 to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

15 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 16 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

17 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a 18 Non-Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 19 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 20 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 21 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

22 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 23 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 24 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s 25 confidential information, then the Party shall:

1 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-2 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality
3 agreement with a Non-Party;

4 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 5 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a 6 reasonably specific description of the information requested; and 7 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 8 Non-Party.

9 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this Court 10 within 14 calendar days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the 11 Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive 12 to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the 13 Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that 14 is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a 15 determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall 16 bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this Court of its Protected 17 Material.

18 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 20 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 21 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 22 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best 23 efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the 24 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 25 this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment 26 and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGE OR OTHERWISE
2 PROTECTED MATERIAL

3 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 4 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other 5 protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal 6 Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify 7 whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for 8 production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 9 502(d) and (e), insofar as the Parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure 10 of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work 11 product protection, the Parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated 12 protective order submitted to the court.

13 12. MISCELLANEOUS

14 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 15 person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

16 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 17 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 18 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in 19 this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on 20 any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective 21 Order.

22 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the 23 Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested 24 persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this Action any Protected 25 Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply 26 with Local Civil Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal 27 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material 28

1 at issue. Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a 2 request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as 3 trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's 4 request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Local Civil Rule 79-5(d) is 5 denied by the Court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public 6 record pursuant to Local Civil Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the 7 Court.

8 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

9 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this Action, as defined in 10 paragraph 4, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the 11 Producing Party or permanently destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, 12 "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and 13 any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether 14 the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a 15 written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to 16 the Designating Party) by the 60-day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, 17 where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) 18 affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, 19 compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 20 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an 21 archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing 22 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert 23 reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if 24 such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 25 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 26 Section 4.

1 14. VIOLATION

2 Any violation of this Order may entitle any Party to secure any relief as the 3 Court deems just and appropriate.
